

1st May 2008

Mr W W Habershon MRICS
171 Munster Road
LONDON
SW6 6DA

Ref: 1189272

Dear Mr Habershon

Congratulations on qualifying as a Chartered Surveyor

It is my great pleasure to congratulate you on passing your RICS Assessment of Professional Competence, and to award you the status of professional member of RICS. Over the next five days, you will find the full pass list on the RICS website, www.rics.org/results

Welcome to RICS and one of the most diverse, interesting and demanding professions. Now that you are an RICS member, you are entitled to use the designation MRICS, an Internationally recognised and respected symbol of excellence and integrity, bringing with it many benefits and opportunities to play your part in our profession's future. My own experience has been that friendships and professional contacts made by actively being involved in RICS' activities, which are both valuable and long lasting.

If you should need any guidance, beyond what is contained in the enclosed documents, please do not hesitate to call the RICS Contact Centre on 0870 333 1600.

Once again, many congratulations, and my personal good wishes for success in your professional career.

Yours sincerely

David Tuffin FRICS
President, RICS

Information in this pack includes:

- Your new membership card
- How to ensure you pay your membership subscription
- Details on planning and recording your Lifelong Learning activity
- How you would like to receive your diploma
- Details of how RICS can support you – log on to www.rics.org and start to personalise your own homepage to receive information that is relevant to you
- Pointers on how to use the RICS 'mark' to promote yourself throughout your career
- A handy guide to RICS Services
- How you can contribute to LionHeart.

RICS is incorporated by Royal Charter, which sets out the organisation's objectives and underlines its importance as a professional body representing and regulating surveyors in the public interest. Review a copy of the RICS Royal Charter and Bye Laws by visiting www.rics.org/charter